

SUPERVISORY REPORT 2019-2020

Tracey Garrett and Christine Rogers met up in October, December, January and February to check the accounts and for a handover of responsibilities before Christine stepped down from her role.

During the lockdown the Supervisory Committee was suspended.

Tracey Garrett advised the Credit Union of her desire to step down from her role, due to work commitments, when a suitable replacement is employed.